Say it with flowers

"The changing seasons are one of the most charming aspects of living in the north. There is always something to enjoy - even in the winter months," says Claus Dalby, the artist and photographer behind the five new stamps bearing images of beautiful winter flowers. Claus Dalby is a man of many talents: gardener, photographer, TV celebrity, author and publisher. And he can now delight in the knowledge that correspondents in Denmark will have the chance to decorate their letters with some of his wonderful bouquets.

Biggest philatelic event ever held in Jutland

Make sure you're there when Nordia 2017, the giant Nordic stamp exhibition, opens its doors at the DGI-Huset exhibition center in Vejle from 27 through 29 October.

The exhibition, which is being arranged by Vejle Frimærkeklub (Vejle Stamp Club) and the Danish Philatelic Federation in partnership with PostNord, is being held concurrently with the 4th International Polar Philatelic Exhibition. In addition to the chance to meet a host of traders and mail companies, you can look forward to all kinds of fascinating specialist exhibitions - including possibly the biggest Danish-West Indian special exhibition ever.

Exhibition labels with motifs from Vejle

To mark the Nordia 2017 event, PostNord is issuing three exhibition labels featuring local motifs from Vejle. The motifs, show a view of the famous Vejle Fjord Bridge, the multitude of colorful umbrellas floating high above Vejle Midtpunkt, and a cross-section of the distinctive Bølgen (Wave) housing complex located on the shores of Vejle Fjord. The labels will be on sale at Nordia 2017 in all values from DKK 8 and up, and as from 27 October you will also be able to buy them online from the Nordfrim webshop: www.nordfrim.dk. If you already have an exhibition label subscription, you will receive a set of the three values shown here on the date of issue, 2 January 2018.

17NO PRICE: DKK 49.00

Bertil Skov Jørgensen is the artist who created the designs for the three Nordia 2017 exhibition labels. At the stamp show, you can have them cancelled with the special exhibition frank that features a motif from the Jelling Rune Stones.

Minisheet to celebrate Nordia

A new version of the minisheet comprising images of three vintage cars will be issued to mark the opening of Nordia 2017. The stamps themselves are the same, but as a new element, the Nordia logo has been printed along the edge of the sheet, which also features the official date of Nordia 2017. You can buy the minisheet at the exhibition, and if you have a subscription for either minisheets or cancelled minisheets, you will automatically receive the new sheet in connection with the issue on 2 January 2018.

1716MA PRICE: DKK 75.00
